
The future is already here.

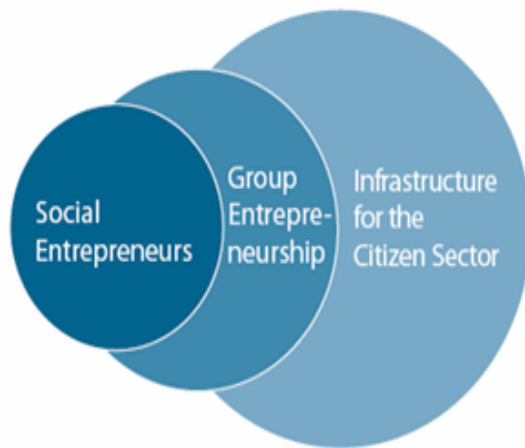

It is just unevenly distributed.

Vincent Baguire

Vincent Baguire is increasing incomes in poor farming communities by using communication technology both to facilitate the sharing of indigenous farming knowledge and to enable poor farmers to obtain better prices for their products.

Adrian Mukhebi

By facilitating the flow of information between small-scale farmers and commodity markets, Adrian Mukhebi is increasing farmers' negotiating power and improving rural food distribution and household food security

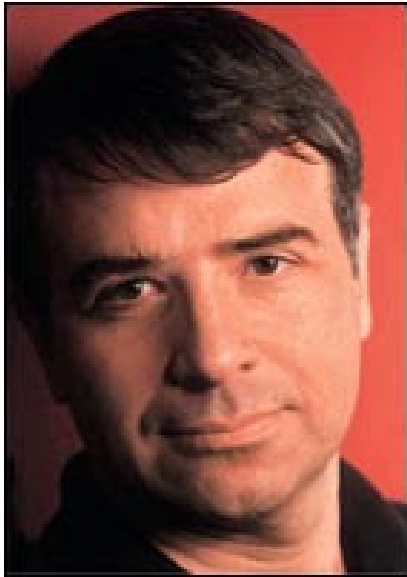

Jimmy Wales

His Wikipedia is a free online, multilingual, open-source reference collection written and edited collaboratively by hundreds of thousands of participants around the world.

Wikipedia has, in a few short years, radically democratized the act of content creation—and has generated an enormous trove of knowledge accessible to anyone with an Internet connection.

Ami Dar

Ami Dar has created an online market for social action which makes it possible for virtually anyone to act on their desire to change society.

His organization, Action Without Borders, has built www.idealists.org—a network of hundreds of thousands of people and over 50,000 organizations addressing dozens of social issues across the U.S. and around the world.
